

Harlan Lee Hicks

Healdton - Mr. Harlan Lee Hicks, 60 of Healdton departed from this life on Sunday, March 6, 2022 in Ardmore, OK. He was born on December 19, 1961 in Ringling, OK to the late Mr. Melvin Hicks and Mrs. Carolyn (Tindall) Fox. Cremation services are under the care and direction of Alexander Gray Funeral Home in Healdton and it was the wishes of Harlan not to have any services.

Harlan was raised in the Dundee/Healdton area attending school at Healdton. He quit high school and started working for Castello's Electric to help take care of his siblings. Later in life, he moved on to work for Healdton Electric for 10 years where he retired. Healdton Electric was a family to us all and he made lifelong friends there. Harlan was a very active outgoing man who loved fishing, taking care of his chickens, cooking hamburgers on the grill and spending time and loving his family. If you knew him, you'd know that he LOVED to give anyone a good ole hard time!

Preceding him in death were his parents; and grandparents, Earl and Evilee Hicks and Ed Tindall and Daisy Airgington.

Harlan is survived by his right hand gal, Sheila Hicks of the home; daughters, Kelsey Pulis and husband Brent, Kenzie Hicks, and Konnor Palmer and husband Zack; son, Tyler Hicks and Jersie; sisters, Connie Pearson and husband Donald "Goose", Cynde Sanders and husband Robbie, and Shawn Jackson and Vicki; granddaughters, Brentlee, Sophia, Riverlyn, Crimsyn and Oaklyn; grandsons, Alton and baby boy Pulis father and mother in law, Marion and Emma Baker; many nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.
