

Velva Lorene Throneberry

After 96 years on this earth, Velva Lorene Throneberry flew away Friday, February 7, 2020, from her earthly cares and to be with her Lord and Savior.

Lorene is survived by her children, Linda Todd and husband, Junior, Carol Towler, Lester Throneberry and wife, Barbara, Audie Throneberry and wife, Valerie all of Lone Grove, and Doris Petty of Ardmore; also, nineteen grandchildren, forty-three great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren as well as her extended family and friends. Lorene was a kind and gentle person who loved spending time with family and friends.

Lorene is reunited with her parents, Andy Braziel and Onie McIntire Perkins; a son-in-law and two grandchildren, that preceded her in death.

Born August 8, 1923 in Carter County, Lorene was a person of faith, affiliated with the Assembly of God Churches. In addition to being a wife, mother and homemaker, she had worked as a hostess and cashier at area restaurants and department stores.

Funeral services for Lorene will be at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, February 13, 2020, in the Centennial Chapel of Harvey-Douglas Funeral Home and Crematory. Interment will be in the Dixie Cemetery.
