

John Hollas Weatherford

Graveside services for John Hollas Weatherford, Sr, 73, of Olney, Texas were held at the Dixie cemetery in Loco, Oklahoma, with Rev. Andy Graham, pastor of Southside Baptist Church in Olney, Texas officiating.

Born April 29, 1933 in Santa Rosa, New Mexico, to Edward Andrew Weatherford and Mary Stroud Weatherford he died July 10, 2006 in Ft. Worth, Texas.

He and Lillian Brown were married 24 July 1955 in Graham, Texas.

Mr. Weatherford served in the US Army during the Korean Conflict.

He rode for 6666, Matador and Swenson Ranchers. He was a self-employed long haul truck driver and rancher.

He moved to Olney from Newcastle in 1991. He was a member of the Newcastle Baptist Church.

Survived by his wife; two sons - John Hollas Weatherford, Jr. of Boyd and Andrew Clay Weatherford of Dew; three daughters - Mary Herard of Newcastle, Rebecca McCauley of Olney and Donnad McCandless of Albany, LA; one brother - Jim Weatherford of Hugo, OK; one sister - Eddye Gilley of Garvin, OK; 12 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren.